

Invitation to Join

We are a team of O & G doctors serving patients with passion, and safety is our priority.

- Fleet of ultrasound machines & bespoke CMS for all clinics, air disinfection systems, time-honored approach to grow doctors, coaching on communication, and assistance from seniors.
- Good linkage to provide opportunities for hospital background, good relationship with multiple parties to ensure referrals.

We welcome team players with kind hearts, good souls, skilled hands, and understanding words to serve clients.

- While many public colleagues achieved well professionally, great success in non-financial areas is also scored by many private practice colleagues.
- If you consider a life away from the public sector, we invite you to consider our professional home, established by professionals for professionals.

Interested doctors please contact Ms Emily Choi at 9612 5882. Alternatively, explore possibilities directly with our founder Dr Ares Leung confidentially without commitment, using his personal number 6833 0023 or email ares@aresleung.org.
