TAI KWUN

Tai Kwun is Hong Kong's Centre for Heritage and Arts — a cultural destination for inspiration, stimulation and enjoyment. We aspire to offer the best heritage and arts experiences, and to cultivate knowledge and appreciation of contemporary art, performing arts and history in the community.

Tai Kwun invites all visitors on a journey of discovery that unites multiple genres of arts, heritage, culture and lifestyle in Hong Kong. Here, visitors will discover the rich heritage of the site through the thematic exhibitions and immersive public programmes that explore Hong Kong's history and culture, alongside a multitude of vibrant and inclusive contemporary art presentations and performing arts offerings all year round.

Opened in May 2018 and operating on a not-for-profit model, Tai Kwun is the fruition of a joint partnership between The Hong Kong Jockey Club and the Government of the HKSAR to conserve and revitalise the buildings of the historic Central Police Station compound, which represents one of the most significant revitalisation projects in Hong Kong. The site comprises three Declared Monuments of Hong Kong – the former Central Police Station, Central Magistracy and Victoria Prison, all have been meticulously conserved, with unfailing attention to authenticity. The site also includes two new buildings – JC Contemporary and JC Cube, by renowned architects Herzog & de Meuron; and several outdoor spaces – Parade Ground, Prison Yard and Laundry Steps, providing an exciting venue for the public programmes presented by Tai Kwun and its partners.

Tai Kwun, which means “big station” in Chinese, is the colloquial name used by Hong Kong people to refer to the former police headquarters and the surrounding compound. The name has been adopted as a reminder of the historical importance of this living heritage site.

In 2019, Tai Kwun received the Award of Excellence in the 2019 UNESCO Asia-Pacific Awards for Cultural Heritage Conservation. This is the highest honour of the prestigious Awards, which bestows an international recognition of the outstanding achievement in the conservation and revitalisation efforts of Tai Kwun.

DIRECTORS' MESSAGE

For the last few months, Tai Kwun has seemed a little bit like the Sleeping Beauty, dozing quietly through the most recent restrictions surrounded by the dense and imposing forest of Central's high-rise towers while Hong Kong tip-toed around her. Now, having emerged from her slumber in late April, Tai Kwun springs energetically to life with an invigorating Summer Season of exhibitions, shows and events matched by a refreshed and inspiring new range of dining options beginning this June.

While venues were closed, we were delighted to keep in touch with our arts and heritage audience through our expanded online program. Our regular conservation talks series Tai Kwun Conversations seamlessly re-invented itself as a hybrid online-onstage event and now effortlessly welcomes some of the world's foremost authorities in heritage conservation to share their profound subject matter knowledge and enter into dialogue with our audience.

Throughout the summer of 2022, we are immensely proud to announce that our series is further enhanced by a prestigious co-curating association with UNESCO to explore the latest directions in heritage best practices from leading experts from across the Asia-Pacific Region.

These talks take place monthly on Monday evenings in JC Cube and online at the convenient time of 7pm, which means that dinner at 8:30pm in one of Tai Kwun's restaurants is a natural segue, whether its big-hearted Italian food overlooking Parade Ground at Cantina or bold Spanish flavours and a dramatic setting at Agora on Prison Yard.

Our biggest contemporary art event of 2022 is Behind Your Eyelid —Pipilotti Rist, showcasing the breathtaking and exuberant video, film, photography and installations of Swiss-German artist - Pipilotti Rist. The exhibition, which opens in early August, not only fills all of the gallery spaces of JC Contemporary and F Hall Gallery, but goes above and beyond in its enchantment as it embraces the whole of Tai Kwun in exhilarating and unexpected ways.

Whether it's to watch an open-air movie screening, sip on a balcony, explore the intersection of heritage conservation and the care of Tai Kwun's ancient trees or simply practice mindfulness upon a Tai Kwun beach chair, we hope to see you often throughout this uplifting summer season.

A major new exhibition by the internationally renowned Swiss media artist Pipilotti Rist will land in Hong Kong in Summer 2022, taking over all of the Tai Kwun Contemporary galleries. Rist’s signature moving image installations—highly immersive, deeply sensual, and remarkably insightful—wrap visitors with a virtual hug of sounds, colours, and moving images. Visitors can walk and sprawl within her mesmerising installations, which prompt meditative introspection along with joy and exhilaration, opening up explorations of the body and the image, of exterior environments and interior mindscapes. This high-profile exhibition presents major works from Pipilotti Rist’s oeuvre along with newly commissioned site-specific works for Tai Kwun, both in the galleries but also on the Prison Yard.

BREATHING WITH TREES	08.07 - 04.09.2022
	Mon to Sun 11am – 7pm Block 01 Duplex Studio Free Admission	Artists Lau Chi Chung, Marshmallow Laser Feast, Ng Ka Chun, Anson Wong, Zheng Bo Curator Ying Kwok

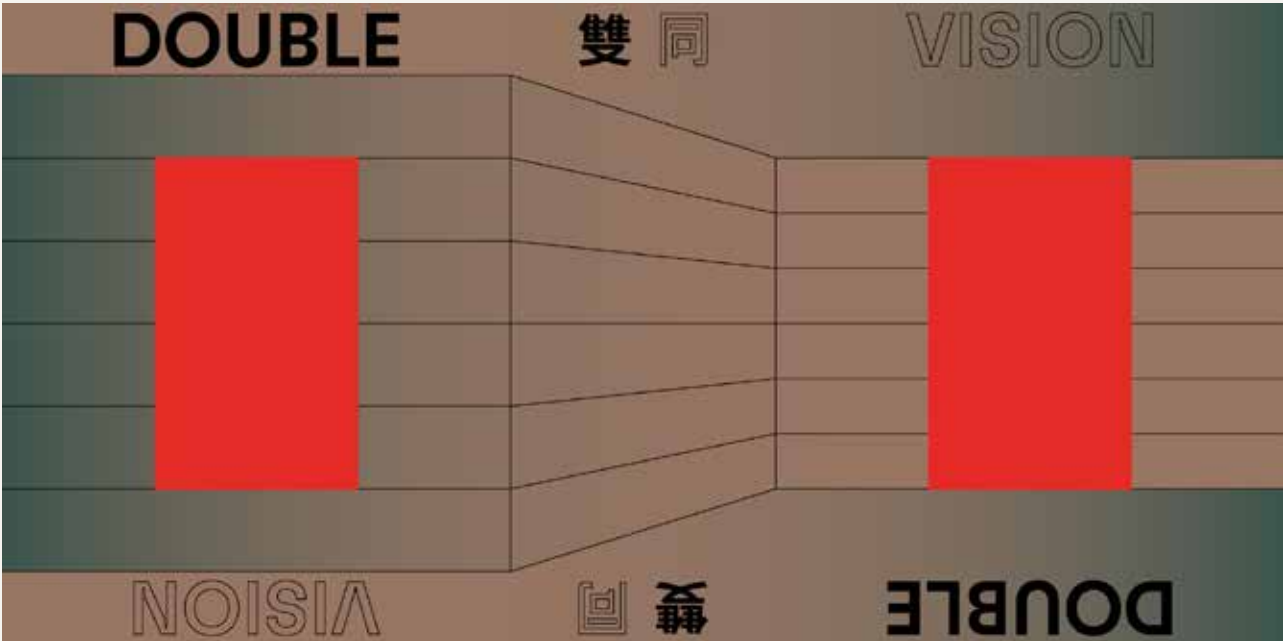

Throughout all the world’s cultures, trees have always had an intimate connection with us physically, biologically, and emotionally. Apart from providing us with food, shelter, and clean air, trees are silent witnesses to our transient existence, as they remain rooted in one place throughout their lives.

However, trees are as mortal as human beings. They constantly face existential threats arising from the damages inflicted on the environment by mankind’s insatiable appetite for consumption and thoughtless expansion. Pollution, deforestation, logging, urban expansion, and climate change pose clear dangers for the future of trees, as super typhoon Mangkut unforgettably demonstrated in 2018, leaving 55,000 trees devastated in its wake.

This exhibition acknowledges the vital role that trees play in our daily lives and explores some of the most advanced ways of protecting, preserving, and nurturing them to ensure future generations can continue to enjoy the benefits that trees bring to us.

Toying with doubles, the exhibition explores the concepts of déjà vu and parallax, and considers how seemingly superficial differences may reveal much more than expected. While some works are doubled serially or thematically, with subtle slippages and variations, some other artists in the exhibition have works that gesture towards memory and the murky everyday lines between truth, perception, and fiction.

emo gym—short for “emotion gymnasium”—calls on seven Hong Kong artists to confront, dissect, and possibly embrace the vulnerability of our times. Together, their sincere, poetic artworks invent an intimate yet experimental space, prompting visitors to uncover sentiments by discovering deep connections with the artworks as well as with each another.

Back by popular demand this June
Cabaret LauZone Sings to the Tune of Hong Kong’s “Crazy Rich Culcha”
“Where are you from? Where are you REALLY from?”

This trivial bit of information seems to be useful only while filling in application forms. However, what else does our place of ancestry represent? Other than a few choice slangs, Hong Kong people are all but detached from the dialects spoken fluently among the older generations. To tackle this bittersweet relationship, the multi-talented trio of Yuri Ng, Anna Lo and Rick Lau, presents LauZone - a poignant yet playful cabaret on the rich variety of Chinese dialects. LauZone’s 2021 premier run in Tai Kwun was completely sold out and garnered much praise and positive reviews.

“Lau Zone” is the Cantonese colloquial term used towards non-Cantonese natives, which essentially includes most Hong Kongers of previous generations, as most of them were immigrants to the city. Get ready for the euphony of dialects, music, and laughter as Rick Lau and Anna Lo shine in a cabaret show that sings tribute to the lives and memories of the melting pot known as Hong Kong as well as to our collective roots and inherited legacy.
