ABOUT TAI KWUN

Opened in May 2018, Tai Kwun — Centre for Heritage and Arts is the fruition of a joint partnership between The Hong Kong Jockey Club and the Government of the HKSAR to conserve and revitalise the buildings of the Central Police Station (CPS) compound. The site is managed and operated by The Jockey Club CPS Limited.

The CPS compound comprises three declared monuments (the former Central Police Station, Central Magistracy and Victoria Prison), with a total of 16 heritage buildings and some outdoors spaces, on a 13,600 square-metre site in the heart of Central. An international-grade non-commercial art gallery and an auditorium have been added to contribute to the adaptive reuse of the site.

Tai Kwun is the colloquial name used by police officers and the public alike to refer to the former police headquarters and the surrounding CPS compound. The name has been adopted by The Jockey Club CPS Limited as a reminder of the historical importance of the site.

In 2019, Tai Kwun received the Award of Excellence in the UNESCO Asia-Pacific Awards for Cultural Heritage Conservation in recognition of its achievement in conservation and revitalisation. This is the Awards' highest honour.

TAI KWUN — YOUR VENUE OF CHOICE

Conservation — Steeped in history, Tai Kwun is a compound of invaluable and priceless heritage buildings that now point to the future. An integral part of the community, Tai Kwun's 16 historic buildings bear witness to the story of Hong Kong's successful journey.

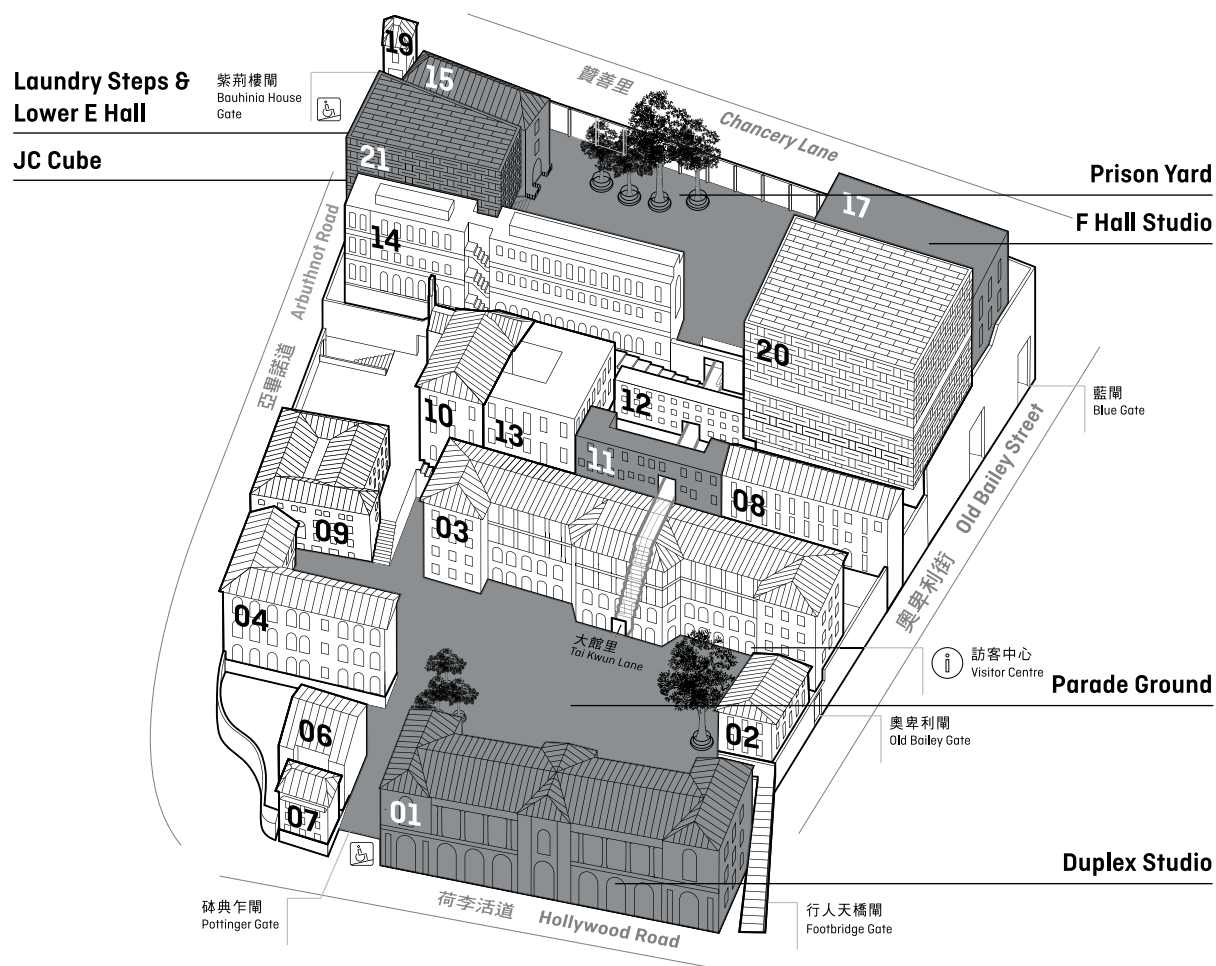

Connection — An iconic haven of serenity within our energetic and fast-paced cosmopolitan city, Tai Kwun transcends its role as a leisure destination for visitors in search of cultural immersion to become a centre of ideas generation with the power to inspire fresh business perspectives.

Convergence — Easily accessible and conveniently located at the heart of Asia's business and financial hub, Tai Kwun brings together diverse industries while connecting people from all walks of life.

Creativity — The perfect stage to host vibrant commercial activities — from conferences, seminars, press conferences and product launches to cocktail parties, workshops and business retreats — Tai Kwun is the ideal platform for any events your creative minds may conjure.

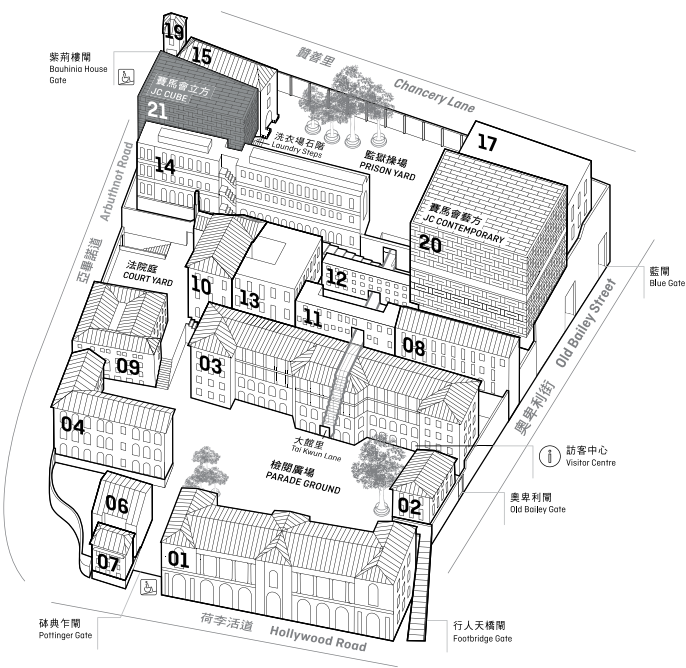

Continuity — A story-telling platform embedded with treasures of knowledge, Tai Kwun is the perfect site to hold professional development programmes in a holistic, sophisticated atmosphere where culture and history blend with unique retail experiences and inspiring culinary options.
